

Service Provider Showcase

“What an amazing organization and happy to become a part of it. In my 13 years in online advertising I have been to a number of different shows/events and what really sets apart STS in my mind are the personal relationships and the level of friendship that you all share.” Kevin Brody, Lead Pulse Media

Affordably showcase new products, new techniques, and new applications – your time to shine. Join with STS in featuring your newest twist on what you have to offer, how you are changing or interpreting current industry trends.

Spring Symposium Knoxville will have three hours of quality browsing time where industry professionals who already know and trust you can learn the newest you have to offer and giving them another reason to consider you as part of their budget.

STS delivers quality delegates, prime potential customers and the time to strengthen or create new relationships during breaks and planned networking opportunity; and with arguably the most affordable ticket to participate.

There is not a better opportunity for established partners and new to our members to show how they can contribute to the success of future customers.
